The Way a Benedict Looked at It.
Mrs. Benham—I don't believe a word of your excuse, Benham—That's just like a woman. I don't suppose Jonah's wife believed the story he told her after he had spent three nights with the whale. Mrs. Benham—How do you know Jonah had a wife? Benham—He wouldn't have been a Jonah if he had not been married.—Brooklyn Life.

A Sickener.
"Some people," growled Crabbe, "make me sick."
"I should think nearly everybody would make you sick," replied Cutting.
"Indeed? Why?"
"Reciprocity, you know."—Philadelphia Press.

Made the Parrot the Scapgoat.
Father—What did the teacher say when she heard you swear? Small Boy—She asked me where I learned it. Father—What did you tell her? Boy—I didn't want to give you away, pa, so I blamed it on the parrot.—Detroit Free Press.

No Evidence to the Contrary.
Friend—I think her mother is a sensible woman. The Lover—Well—a-I don't think she likes me. Friend—Oh, I merely said she was a sensible woman.

Love.
It is hard to preserve equality and greatness on that debatable ground between love and esteem. There is nothing so stable and infatuating as love. The waves beat steadfast on its shore forever, and its tide has no ebb. It is a resource in all extremities and a refuge even from itself. And yet love will not be leaned on.—H. D. Thoreau in Atlantic.

The Last Resort.
Sandy entered a smoking compartment and asked each of his immediate neighbors for a match. All happened to be without them, however, and a look of disappointment came over the Scotchman's face as he remarked resignedly, "Awel, I'll e'en hae to use one o' my ain."

Good Advice.
Said a man who had been detected cheating at cards: "They threaten to kick me downstairs. What am I to do?" The friend appealed to offered this timely counsel, "Play on the ground floor."

His Fatal Mistake.
"Adam was his own boss," wasn't he?"
"Yes, an' ef he hadn't gone ter sleep at de wrong time he'd been so yet!"—Atlanta Constitution.

No man or boy is ever the slightest good in this world unless he has ambition.—Lord Stanley.

Antiquity of Brewing.
The ancient Egyptians understood and practised the art of brewing several centuries before the Christian era, as did also the ancient Greeks. Spaniards and Britons made a fermented drink from wheat, which was used in Spain under the name ceria, and also in Gaul. Tacitus tells us that in his day, about 100 A. D., beer was the common beverage and that the Germans understood how to convert barley into malt. Six hundred years later Charlemagne gave orders that the best brewers should always accompany his court.

A Continuous Round.
"Blivens seems very proud of the fact that he has a bank account."
"Yes; it has developed him into a financier of the continuous type."
"How is that?"
"He checks his money out just for the pleasure of putting it back again."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A "Practical" Wedding Gift.
Pearl—Oh, we had a delightful wedding and received so many silver presents. Ruby—That was fine. And did your father give something in silver too? Pearl—No; he gave us a bottle of acid to test the other presents with.—Chicago News.

It doesn't take any grit to grumble.—Chicago Tribune.

The Dentist's Fan.
"Mr. Dento, I want a tooth pulled. I'm a great coward when it comes to enduring pain, and yet I'm afraid of both laughing gas and chloroform."
"You might be happy with ether."
